The Baker House 1650

B&B accommodation at its best in New York's elite Hamptons

Calling The Baker House 1650 in East Hampton simply a B&B is like referring to The Hamptons as a seaside resort. Although true, it's not enough. Elegant, charming, timeless, comfortable and peaceful, The Baker House 1650 is an exclusive hideaway in prime New York estate. Inspired by the stylings of an English Cotswold manor, a stay here feels like you're staying in a friend's Hampton home. The interior is a display of clever design elements that highlight the period character, yet everything is immaculately fresh and new. Shiny wooden floors and panelling complement the rustic wooden beams and craftwork derived from medieval English architecture. The colonial revival staircase, wood-burning fireplaces and William Morris wallpaper contrast with the high-def TVs and state-of-the-art cable and DVD players. It all works so seamlessly well. In the pretty grounds you'll find terraces surrounded by flowering perennials and shrubs, scented herbs and English gardens; a photo-pretty spot for alfresco dining and parties. The outdoor infinity-edge pool is also here flanked by teak chaises. Additional suites are tucked away in the Baker Carriage House situated within the private acre behind the main house. Back inside the main house and downstairs is The Baker Spa with steam shower, sauna and counter-current pool. Enquire about: passes for free gym access nearby and beach parking.
